

My husband and I would greatly appreciate improved services equal to our hearing counterparts with their efficient services as now we get very frustrated with our VRS service by long waits for our calls to get through and have to rely on our TTY for emergencies.. so there should also be interoperability to other video relay services..

Thank you.